Defendant.)

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

The defendant appeared before the undersigned for a hearing on November 7, 2005, to voluntarily surrender his bond and go into custody. Keith Stewart appeared on behalf of the defendant. Tracee Plowell appeared on behalf of the government.

The government and the defendant agreed that this was a voluntary surrender of bond, and agreement to go into custody, and was not the revocation of the defendant's bond pursuant to a contested revocation hearing. The Court accepted the voluntary surrender and found that the defendant would go into custody.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that:

- (1) Defendant be detained without bond pending trial;
- (2) Defendant be confined separate, to the extent practicable, from person awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (3) Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and

- (4) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with any court proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
